Dr. Khawaja assessed the three books published by the UAE Ministry of Culture, which are: "Harmony in the Heart", "The Upright Woman" and "A Walk in the Desert". He said that the books are characterized by a high level of professionalism and a deep understanding of the subject matter, which reflects the rich cultural heritage of the UAE.

Dr. Khawaja noted that the books were selected based on their ability to reflect the values and principles that underpin the UAE’s identity and culture. He also praised the Ministry of Culture for its efforts in promoting literature and encouraging the development of local talent.

He added that the selection of these books demonstrates the Ministry of Culture’s commitment to fostering a culture of reading and promoting literature in the UAE. He encouraged all citizens to read these books and to engage with the rich cultural heritage of the UAE.

Dr. Khawaja concluded by expressing his hope that these books will inspire and motivate the next generation of UAE citizens to continue to value and promote their rich cultural heritage.

Shakir, the author of "Harmony in the Heart", said that the book is about the importance of harmony and balance in personal and professional life. He emphasized the need for individuals to maintain a healthy balance between work and personal life, and to prioritize their well-being.

Fahim, the author of "The Upright Woman", said that the book is about the struggle of women to achieve equality and respect in the UAE. He highlighted the importance of women’s rights and the need for continued efforts to promote gender equality.

Hassan, the author of "A Walk in the Desert", said that the book is about the beauty of the desert and the experiences of those who live and work in it. He emphasized the importance of preserving the natural beauty of the desert and its cultural heritage.

Dr. Khawaja concluded by expressing his hope that these books will inspire and motivate the next generation of UAE citizens to continue to value and promote their rich cultural heritage.
